

1 Delegate Clagett.

2 DELEGATE CLAGETT: Mr. Chairman, I rise in 3 support of the amendment to strike because we have seen
4 over the years a gradual evolution of the effect of this 5 doctrine with respect to the course of our daily lives.

6 As Delegate Henderson mentioned yesterday,
7 to the extent that there is insurance coverage, there is 8 no immunity. To the extent that there is direct exposure 9 where the public interest is involved, the doctrine is 10 recognized.

11 As the public interest changed, it seems that 12 we are undergoing many changes with respect to the public
13 interest, there is no question but that the General
14 Assembly and the courts will be able to adequately deal
15 with the situation.

16 Where something is adequately and has been 17 effectively recognized and taken care of, there is abso-
18 lutely no need for the additional cluttering of this 19 document.

20 Therefore, I strongly urge that we delete it.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other delegate desire to
